

Gay Divinagracia

2011-2014 Basil L. King Endowed Teaching Chair in Health Science

Gay Divinagracia, Associate Professor, Nursing Department, developed and offered geriatric courses that can benefit the health care disciplines in the community and assisted faculty in the health professions to educate students in essential geriatric content and practice. This project built collaboration among health disciplines and agencies in the community in the pursuit of geriatric education and training. Through partnerships with health care agencies and learning institutions, this project disseminated the most comprehensive and up-to-date information regarding geriatric nursing and geriatric nursing education.

Divinigracia joined IRSC in 1989 and received her Bachelor's and Master's Degrees from the University of the Philippines (Manila).
