

Dr. Sarah Mallonee

2015-2018 J. Douglas Stephens Endowed Teaching Chair in Technology

Dr. Sarah Mallonee, Professor, English, Communications, and Modern Languages Department, will create a Virtual Honors program which will support the increased demand for the Honors experience at IRSC through online offerings. This Endowed Teaching Chair will build off the foundation of the Honors Program curriculum, offering online students a rich social dynamic to supplement their coursework and an essential cohort experience to collaborate with fellow learners. The virtual world also has limitless possibilities with interdisciplinary learning so this project will be testing ground for exploration of these associations.

Dr. Mallonee joined IRSC in 2007. She holds a Bachelor's Degree from Tulane University, and a Master's and Ph.D. in English degrees from the University of Florida.
