Scholarship Application Helpful Hints:

1. Applications are applied to scholarships based on student answers and eligibility.
2. Applicants MUST select the program and degree they will be accepted and/or enrolled in Fall 2023. (If an A.A. Degree must be obtained before being accepted into an A.S. or B.S. Degree program, select the correct option for Fall 2023.)
3. Applicants must confirm that their major is a certificate or degree program offered at IRSC. Verify at <https://www.irsc.edu/programs/index.html>.
4. If you are TRANSFERRING in Fall 2023, click YES and name the institution. Essay section should support this statement. If you are transferring after Fall 2023, DO NOT select transferring as an option.
5. Every question must be completed. State N/A if not applicable.
6. Applications are applied to scholarships based on student answers. Make sure every answer is applicable for Fall 2023.
7. Review your application before submitting it.
8. Sign in weekly to check status of scholarships and to complete new questions and follow-up requirements. (New scholarships are added regularly.)
9. Student admissions and records must be current in order to complete an IRSC Foundation Scholarship Application. See information below for assistance.

RiverMail

1. RiverMail MUST be activated BEFORE applying for scholarships. Visit <https://www.irsc.edu/admissions/rivermail.html> for help setting up and using RiverMail, resetting your password and viewing FAQs.
2. New and returning students must wait 3–5 business days for RiverMail to be integrated with their IRSC Scholarship Application. (Applicants will get an INVALID EMAIL message if their IRSC student information is not up to date or complete.)
