

John Butler

2009-2012 Dan K. Richardson Endowed Teaching Chair in Business and Entrepreneurship

John Butler, Assistant Professor of the Business Department, recipient of the Dan K. Richardson Endowed Teaching Chair in Business and Entrepreneurship, developed a Trans-Disciplinary Entrepreneurship Initiative and led a focus group for faculty demonstrating ways to integrate entrepreneurial-related topics into the study of fields outside of business. This “teaching circle” group consist of faculty members from a variety of subject areas to incorporate the concepts of entrepreneurship education throughout the college.

Butler joined IRSC in 2005. He received his Bachelor’s Degree from Palm Beach Atlantic University and his Master’s Degree from St. Leo University. Before coming to IRSC, he had an extensive background in the business arena working in the areas of insurance, real estate, and business office management.
