RE: Florida Supervisors of Elections Scholarship, 2022

Date: January 4, 2022

I am pleased to announce the Florida Supervisor of Elections (FSE) is offering scholarships, available to junior and senior college students.

The Florida Supervisors of Elections will offer four $1,200 scholarships for 2022 to college students.

Applicants must be registered Martin County voters and live in the state for at least the preceding two years. Applicants must be either a Political Science, Public Administration, Business Administration, or Journalism/Mass Communication major and be at least a junior in college.

All applicants must be enrolled or accepted as a full-time student in a senior college or university in Florida and have at least a "C" average or above for the previous year.

As your Martin County Supervisor of Elections, I encourage you to take the time and apply for this scholarship. An education is the key, which will open many doors of opportunity in your future endeavors.

The application must be received by March 11, 2022 in the Martin County Supervisor of Elections office and two letters of recommendation must accompany application or be received by the deadline.

If there is anything my office can do to assist you in this process, please contact Kherri Anderson, Deputy of Elections Outreach, at 772-288-5637 or kanderso@martinvotes.gov or visit us online at www.MartinVotes.gov.
